

Blue Line Around Page:

External Margin: No Type Past Blue Line

Dominant Photo

Headline

Secondary Headline

Graphics

Bleed Photo

Side Bar or Mod
Extra Coverage of People in Book

I LOVE EXPRESSING MYSELF IN ART ON PAPER.
KAYLEIGH PETERSON, 12

Bright and early, senior Derek Welch greets English teacher Morgan Olson with her coffee and gives her change before school Nov. 15. "I love giving coffee to teachers on the morning," Welch said. "It makes me feel good with what I'm doing." Welch, along with the coffee crew, got to school every morning before 7:15 a.m. to set up shop. Photo by Anna Hartwe

COFFEE TALK

Students share about working at StarBuffs

46 Hot chocolate is my favorite drink at the coffee shop. I like it because I can make it myself with marshmallows and chocolate powder.
KARLIS SALAS, 12

46 My favorite thing to do at the coffee shop is to help people. It makes me feel good.
MARY NUYTEN, 12

46 I love when we deliver coffee to Mrs. Shargill because she always tips us with candy.
ANNE ADVISOR, 12

46 I like delivering coffee to Mrs. Shargill because she's always sweet and she always tips us with coffee cups.
STANIS STANE, 12

During first period, senior Kayleigh Peterson begins her artwork Nov. 14. "I really like to draw fire and flowers because it's pretty," Peterson said. "What I like most in art is seeing my friends and talking to them." The Omega students worked with art teacher Andrea Dacanay on their drawing class. Photo by Marissa Dacanay

Staying focused, junior Lan Rios Mendez begins the next step of his self-portrait project Nov. 13. "This is my favorite period by far this year because I get to draw myself," Mendez said. Completed portraits hang in the fine arts hall on display. Photo by Joseph Valencia

BEYOND EXPRESSION

Omega students show how they feel through art & supporting others

"ART IN GENERAL IS JUST A STRESS RELIEVER FOR ME. EVEN WHEN TIMES ARE HARD AND COMPLICATIONS ARE TOUGH, ART IS ALWAYS FOR ME."
CAMARIE PIAZ, 12

Setting through stacks of paper, sophomore Camarie Piaiz begins working on her self-portrait drawing project Nov. 10. "I like being able to draw and have fun with my friends," Piaiz said. "Art makes me be able to express what I love doing, which is drawing." After drawing her self-portrait, art teacher Andrea Dacanay discussed Piaiz's vision about what to do with her background. Photo by Joseph Valencia

Gliding markers across the paper, sophomore Edward Escameal works on the finishing touches for his art project Nov. 10. "This is my favorite project," Escameal said. "It's very interesting to see what it will look like on the end, and I can't wait." Everyday before art class begins, Escameal followed to his music to inspire him. Photo by Joseph Valencia

Walking onto the gym, juniors Grace Casper and Elna Dorens celebrate volleyball's senior night Oct. 20 with senior Sara Buggert. "I feel so much joy to be able to have a person with me that looks up to the team and just for a shining light on their hearts," Dorens said. "I'm so blessed to get to have the experience of walking somebody's day." Before the senior volleyball game, the Omega students received shirts and gifts from the players for supporting the volleyball team. Photo by Alexa Garcia

KEEPING IT REAL!

"Theatre is my favorite subject in school because I love how I can be free and just feel calm."
ROBALD SALAZAR, 11

Omega Program ACADEMICS 023
DESIGN BY KATELYN PROBYTT

Edge of Page

Solid Black Line

Gutter

No Faces in Gutter

Pulled Quote
Or Quote

Caption
Bold Lead

Info Graphics

Folio or Folio Tab