

Words and Writing

Mod 7, Part 8

Headline Literary Devices

Student's Name: _____

The headline is the first copy most readers see and most people decide whether to read the story and other copy based on the headline. Therefore, it is your goal to grab your readers' attention! Cheerleaders, Band, Choir and First Day of School are not headlines. We will look at three ways to write creative headlines.

Puns: Make a joke exploiting the different possible meanings of a word. Play off words that sound alike but have different meanings.

Rhyme: Correspondence of sound between words or the endings of words, especially when these are used at the ends of lines.

Alliteration: The occurrence of the same letter or sound at the beginning of adjacent or closely connected words.

Puns: Double meaning word play

66 GOING TO THE TOP The 2017 parade float of the Florida State Band, which won the AAA class championship in the state competition, is shown in the parade. The band is shown in the parade, and the float is shown in the parade.

OUT WITH THE OLD The Florida State Band, which won the AAA class championship in the state competition, is shown in the parade. The band is shown in the parade, and the float is shown in the parade.

GOING TO THE TOP The 2017 parade float of the Florida State Band, which won the AAA class championship in the state competition, is shown in the parade. The band is shown in the parade, and the float is shown in the parade.

MBOP takes home sweet home in the Florida State Band competition.

Hours of hard work and long practices in Florida had definitely paid off when it came time for the annual marching band championships at Tropicana Field. Among the district's most prestigious accomplishments was winning AAA class champion in the state competition, which had not happened since 2013.

Members of the team were overwrought at the moment the winners were announced. Freshman Andrew Musquiz was especially surprised when the news came. "I sat there every night trying to express, and I was completely blown," Musquiz said. Sophomore Jessica Blass reflected on the group feeling at odds at the state competition. "It's a moment I'll never forget," Blass said. After receiving eighth place at semifinals last season, it was a shock to finish at the band's first win place at both semifinals and state championships this season.

The team's delivery saw improvement compared to previous years. Junior Marshall Knapp believed the frequent practices were what helped drive the Florida to victory. "I told them that the year was our senior year. We improved a lot over a short period of time compared to other seasons. There have been a lot of great things. All of it, marching band proved the experience had had work play off."

Huge animals were part of marching band's Friday night tradition. Each section had the responsibility of bringing a stuffed animal. These animals were a source of spirit and caused a "hype war." In the past year, someone had stolen the lioness's section lion. The lioness had been burned and had holes. They posted pictures of it. They knew how figure was stolen," said sophomore Penelope Rugg.

LET'S GET HYPED

"Hype animal" tradition continues

"I DON'T THINK I'LL EVER FORGET THE SURGE OF HAPPINESS I FELT IN THAT MOMENT. I WAS COMPLETELY OVERWHELMED WITH EMOTION THAT I HAD JUST BROKE DOWN AND STARTED CRYING."

-NALA DELGADO (19), ON WINNING STATE CHAMPIONS

Marching Band 61

Rhyme:

3.

THE BOYS' marching band student section using home football games

Homecoming week was famous for school spirit and pep assemblies. When some football coaches scheduled pep assemblies, band members had other things to mind: pep assemblies. During halftime of the game, a show featured dance, the football band's lead players in stage performing a musical number, and the band's lead players performing a musical number. The band's lead players, the pep assembly, and the pep assembly were the best things that happened at homecoming.

During the middle of homecoming, Mike's brother stepped in bringing another member. Mike's brother was from the band and through the first pep assembly, having the pep assembly was not something new. Mike's brother and they would be able to play.

Unfortunately, the band leaders had no interest in the pep assembly. Mike's brother was from the band and through the first pep assembly, having the pep assembly was not something new. Mike's brother and they would be able to play.

(Bella Lacy)

Marching Band
MID-DECEMBER

The first step: Make a list of all the things you want to do. The next step: Make a list of all the things you want to do.

Step 1: Make a list of all the things you want to do. Step 2: Make a list of all the things you want to do.

Step 3: Make a list of all the things you want to do. Step 4: Make a list of all the things you want to do.

Step 5: Make a list of all the things you want to do. Step 6: Make a list of all the things you want to do.

When the band was first formed, it was a small group of students who were interested in playing instruments. The band was formed in the fall of 1998, and it was a small group of students who were interested in playing instruments.

When the band was first formed, it was a small group of students who were interested in playing instruments. The band was formed in the fall of 1998, and it was a small group of students who were interested in playing instruments.

75

Puns: _____

Rhyme: _____

Alliteration: _____

4.

Puns: _____

Rhyme: _____

Alliteration: _____