November 2025

General	Make sure the items from your October checklist are complete.  JEA/NSPA Fall National High School Journalism Convention will be Nov. 13-16 in Nashville; visit fall.journalismconvention.org for more information.  Continue your social media presence. Use Walsworth's Social Media Calendar for inspiration. This is a great place to conduct polls and surveys for infographics on your spreads.
Sales	Boost your yearbook sales with some great holiday graphics from our Social Media Resources page Everyone loves a deal! Promote Cyber Monday yearbook and ad sales using our editable materials .
Training	Download our Get the Most Out of School Store Coupon Codes eBook for great ideas.  How can you effectively and ethically use AI this school year? Learn strategies in our latest Yearbook Suite unit, Using AI: Ethical Considerations for Yearbook Staffs. Take advantage of our Class Starters , a series of 10-15 minute education training video clips you can use at the start of class.
Creation	With your first deadlines approaching, download this handy Yearbook Spread Checklist for editors and staffers to review.  It's deadline season – finish ads, opening dividers, section dividers, student profiles, people pages, fall sports and/or chronological spreads for the fall as well as your cover and endsheets. Mini-deadlines are key to deadline success; tell your staff how far they should be on spreads before the final deadline, and give yourself time to proof all the work.  Be open to additional stories you may not have considered – a few surprises always come up.
Photography  Need photos? Continue to promote Yearbook Snap and request photos from your students and parents for past or upcoming events like Homecoming, Halloween, Thanksgiving and more.
