

More than just a page number, your folio

is packed full of great reader info

- ✓ Page Number
- ✓ Book Section
- ✓ Spread Subject
- ? Design By
 - It's nice to give a little nod to the hard work. Photo and design credits should be the smallest text on the spread.
- ? Sponsor
 - Instead of using up page space in the ads, try listing a sponsor for each spread. This encourages more eyes on their business and a bigger profit for your publication.
- ? Theme Content
 - Working a tiny mod into the folio is a great way to carry your theme to every page and fit in a few more students. This could be something as simple as a Q&A or a cut out.

These three are essential to help your reader navigate the book. Be sure they are easily visible and readable on the right or left side.
